

TELLING MY OWN STORY

Take a minute to identify some key characters and events in your own story by completing the following prompts. (If you did not know Jesus during one of these life stages, you have two options. You can either skip a prompt or you can choose a time frame that makes more sense with your story. For instance, instead of talking about your faith as a child, you might describe your faith last year.)

01 The top person/people who influenced my faith as a child was: _____
What was special about them?

02 The top person/people who influenced my faith as a teen was: _____
What was special about them?

03 The biggest challenge to my faith growing up was:

04 I feel like I understood and “owned” my faith when I was about _____ years old because:

05 One ‘high point’ of my faith as a child/teen was:

06 Write a couple of observations about your story as you reflect back on your faith journey:
