

IMAGINARY STORIES OF FUTURE HOPE

---

Imagine one student's life one to three years in the future. You have ten to fifteen minutes to complete this activity.

YOUR NAME:

STUDENT'S NAME:

CURRENT GRADE:

CURRENT AGE:

01 Describe the basics of this student's life as you imagine they'll be. Where does he live? What is she doing? What is important to him?

02 What do we make of those reactions? What can we learn from them?

03 Describe one imaginary scenario that this student will likely face (choosing a major, going to a party in college, comforting a friend who has experienced a tragedy, getting a job, dating, entering the military, etc.).

04 Put it all together and write it as a story. This is your story of future hope for this student.
