

12 QUESTIONS YOU CAN ASK

to help spark family conversation this holiday season

START HERE...

1. How's school going?
2. How are you staying connected with your friends?
3. What bands are you listening to the most these days?
4. What's your favorite show to binge-watch these days?
5. What's been the most challenging part about living in this season?
6. Is that a new smartphone?
7. How have you been able to connect with a faith community?
8. What's one of your favorite holiday memories from growing up?
9. What did you think about the election?
10. If you could travel right now, where would you go?
11. Who do you feel understands your life the most?
12. What do you like and dislike about how we've been communicating this fall?

GO THERE

1. Who's your favorite professor, and why?
2. Tell me about the friend you've felt closest to during the pandemic.
3. How would you describe their music and how it resonates with you?
4. Why do you think that show is so popular?
5. Where do you feel like you need the most support?
6. Tell me about the features you love the most.
7. What's been the best [or the hardest] part of that?
8. Why do you think it was so significant to you?
9. What issues do you think are more important to young people?
10. Who would you want to travel with? Why?
11. What qualities do they have that you admire?
12. What can we try differently for next season?

Read the full post at: fulleryouthinstitute.org/blog/family-holiday-conversations

Equipping diverse leaders and parents so faithful young people can change our world.

fulleryouthinstitute.org