Notes & Ideas

Keychain Leadership

What it is: Instead of centralizing _____, empower others—especially young people.

Metric: How many young people are currently being _____ for meaningful leadership, or given the _____ to handle an important aspect of your ministry?

Empathizing with today's young people

What it is: Instead of judging or _____, step into the shoes of this generation.

Metric: How many _____ in your church have meaningful relationships with young people where the young person feels _____ and _____?

Taking Jesus' message seriously

What it is: Instead of asserting _____ gospel claims, welcome young people into a _____ way of life.

Metric: How many young people understand _____ and can talk about it on a personal level?

Fuel a warm community

What it is: Instead of focusing on cool worship or programs, aim for warm peer and _____ friendships.

Metric: How much of your _____ is directed toward cultivating warmth values: welcoming, accepting, belonging, authentic, hospitable, caring?

Prioritize young people (and families) everywhere

What it is: Instead of giving lip service to how much young people _____, look for ways to tangibly support and _____ them in all facets of your church.

Metric: How often are _____ invited to be actively engaged in your ministry? How often are young people invited to _____ in weekly all-church activities?

Be the best neighbors

What it is: Instead of _____ the world outside your walls, enable young people to neighbor well locally and globally.

Metric: How much of our church's resources are going directly to serve communities in need? How many _____ with community organizations does our church have?

Your ministry _____ matter.
